WALLACK LAW

Sanford "Sandy" Wallack went into law with a purpose: to fight for people accused of crimes. He has made good on this goal for 29 years, built on an ironclad belief that everyone deserves a vigorous defense.

As the only attorney at Wallack Law, Sandy pours his attention into each case and personally handles every step. He has robust experience in criminal defense, including white collar crime, successfully defending clients in state and federal court and at the trial and appellate level. He works tirelessly to guide clients to the best possible outcome, communicating with them constantly along the way.

From financial and healthcare fraud to identity theft, Sandy has represented clients across the state of Georgia. He steeps himself in every detail and develops a strategic defense—all with an understanding that each client's reputation, freedom and life are on the line.
